

HALL OF FAME CLASSIC

• IMPORTANT CHANGES •

- Be sure to review the itinerary for the accurate start time of all events.
- Open Singles & Rookie Singles will run according to a timed schedule on the winners side. (In other words, you will know what time your next scheduled match is.)
- Rookies are not eligible for Open Singles and an all rookie team is not eligible for Open Doubles. (A rookie can play with a higher rated player in Open Doubles.)
- Rookie Singles & Rookie Doubles top finishers will now receive cash along with Tornado Tournament 2000 tables.
- Rookie Women's Doubles & Rookie Women's Singles top finishers will now receive cash.
- Semi-Pro Singles & Semi-Pro Doubles prize payout has increased.
- A new event call Semi-Pro/Rookie Women's Doubles has been added and contains prize money. (Two semi-pro women cannot play together. A rookie can play with a rookie or a semi-pro. Participants must not be in any other event.)
- Package Deal contents have changed, please review carefully.

What a year 2002 promises to be in the World of Foosball. Many new and exciting changes have taken place for the Hall of Fame Classic.
